

Bexhill
Academy

AFTER SCHOOL PROVISION POLICY

Updated: December 2016

Next Review: December 2017

After School Clubs

Bexhill Academy offers a variety of after school clubs which take place from 2.50pm – 4.00pm. These are voluntary activities on the part of staff and students and are offered on the understanding that students who sign up for an activity must be committed to attend all of the sessions. Students who are unable to attend a session must inform the member of staff in charge of the activity in advance of the date.

As some clubs have a maximum amount of places available it is important to attend the club(s) on the first session and register your name.

- The coffee shop is available to students until 4.00pm Monday through to Thursday.
- A timetable of after school clubs will be published for each term.
- For more information please contact our Communications Officer - Tracey Holden, or view the clubs/activities on our website <http://www.bexhillacademy.org/students/after-school-clubs>

After School Student Intervention

Bexhill Academy has a programme of after school intervention. It can significantly contribute to raising a student's achievement. Students will best benefit from the intervention if they have full parental support.

- The coffee shop is available to students until 4.00pm Monday through to Thursday.
- A timetable of after school intervention will be published for each term.
- For more information please contact our Communications Officer - Tracey Holden or view the clubs/activities on our website <http://www.bexhillacademy.org/students/after-school-clubs>

After School Homework Club/Independent Study

Bexhill Academy has a homework club that takes place from 2.50- 4.30pm Monday through to Thursday. The homework club is run by staff and has expectations of a place of quiet focused school work. Students will have access to computers. Bexhill Academy focuses on developing student independence and responsibility. The homework clubs operates in the following format;

Students use homework club as a drop in session and attend as necessary for their needs. (Students may join homework club after attending another school club or they may leave when they have completed their work).

- Homework club takes place in the Library.
- The coffee shop is available to students until 4.00pm Monday through to Thursday.
- For more information please contact our Communications Officer - Tracey Holden or view the clubs/activities on our website <http://www.bexhillacademy.org/students/after-school-clubs>