Declaration by Applicant

The Working Time Regulations 1998

Regulations on Working Time

The Working Time Regulations were introduced on 1st October 1998 and working hours in the UK are now governed by statute. Department working practices and procedures are therefore organised to comply with the following legal requirements. (Average hours are normally calculated over a 17 week period.)

- Average weekly working hours are limited to 48 hours
- Average daily night working hours are limited to 8 hours
- Minimum daily, weekly and in-work rest breaks requirements
- Minimum requirements for annual leave.

Department Policy and Procedures

The legislation was introduced as a health and safety measure. Employers who do not comply with the limits to working time will be committing a criminal offence. Working practices in the department are therefore monitored to ensure that generally, working hours remain well within legal limits.

Employers are required to take 'all responsible steps' to ensure that the limits to working time are not exceeded. This includes inquiring whether a person is working elsewhere. All applicants are therefore asked to declare all other employment.

This declaration will not prejudice your application

Please note:

- If you do have other job(s), your application will still be assessed on your suitability to do the job you are applying for. At this stage, any other jobs you declare will be ignored.
- If you are selected for interview the implications will be carefully discussed with you. The department may consider it necessary to discuss the situation with your other employer(s) but only with your permission.
- Depending on the overall situation and the outcome of discussions with you, the department would have the following options:
 - not to offer you the appointment
 - offer the appointment on reduced hours
 - offer the appointment providing the other work is relinquished (or the hours reduced)
 - offer the appointment and enter into an agreement with you to opt out of the weekly working time limit.

Employment which you intend to continue if successfully appointed to the post applied for.

Please complete and sign either Section 1 or Section 2 below.

Your application cannot be processed if you do not return this form.

Please declare any other job, whether they are with the County Council, other local authorities, public bodies or with private companies/employers.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

You are required to declare any criminal convictions (including bind over and cautions) which are not “spent” in accordance with the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Some of our posts carry exempt status under the provisions of the Act for which you are required to declare any convictions regardless of whether or not the time limit has elapsed.

Please read the guidance notes before completing this section.

For posts that are exempt under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974:
Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence? (select as applicable)	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> / No <input type="checkbox"/>

If YES to any of the above, please give details below or, if you prefer, attach details in a sealed envelope marked 'strictly confidential'. Failure to disclose, in accordance with the guidance, any information relating to criminal convictions may disqualify your application or result in dismissal without notice.

Declaration

I declare that the information given both on this application form and the attached equal opportunities monitoring form is true and correct. I understand that any false or misleading information, or omissions of information concerning canvassing or criminal convictions, may disqualify my application or may render my Contract of Employment, if I am appointed, liable to termination.

CONFIDENTIAL: Equal Opportunities in Employment – Monitoring Form

This section will be removed for monitoring purposes before the selection process begins and will not affect the consideration of your application.

Everyone is unique owing to differences in age, gender, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation, ability etc. The Trust aims to treat these differences positively, recognising that diversity creates a strong, flexible and creative workforce.

All applicants are treated fairly, and selection for appointment is to be based solely on a person's ability to do the job.

The Trust has a statutory duty to collect the information you provide on this form and it will assist us in ensuring fairness of treatment in appointment decisions, as statistical monitoring will show whether minority groups are being treated equitably.

This information will not affect the consideration of your application.

Disability Guidance

Where an applicant has a disability and they meet the essential criteria of the post they are automatically shortlisted for interview. This positive action helps ensure people with disabilities get their fair share of jobs.

The Equality Act 2010 says that a person is disabled if they have a mental or physical impairment or long term health condition which has a substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

If you consider yourself to be disabled please let us know. We would appreciate advice on any assistance you may require or reasonable adjustments we might arrange to enable you to attend or participate in the interview, in compliance with the Equality Act 2010.

Do you consider yourself to be disabled as set out in the Equality Act? (select as applicable)	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> / No <input type="checkbox"/>
If YES, please describe your disability.
If you need any assistance to attend or participate in the interview, please give details.

Employees with caring and parental responsibilities

We value the contribution of carers, and we understand the additional pressures carers face in managing their work and caring responsibilities at the same time.

Are you a carer?

We consider a carer to be anyone who spends a significant proportion of their time providing unpaid support to family or friends. This could be caring for a partner, relative or friend who is ill, frail, disabled, or has mental health or substance misuse problems.

Examples of caring activities

A lot of people with caring responsibilities don't identify themselves as being a carer. We consider you to be a carer if you provide:

- personal care such as help with bathing, washing, dressing, going to the toilet and administering medicines
- physical care such as help getting out of bed, walking, eating and feeding, getting out of the house and/or in the community and with shopping
- administrative support such as help with finances and filling in forms
- emotional support and company including listening, prompting, encouraging and raising confidence.

According to the definition of a 'carer' given above, do you have caring responsibilities for an adult?

Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>
No	<input type="checkbox"/>
Prefer not to say	<input type="checkbox"/>

Are you a parent carer?

The term parent carer means any person with parental responsibility for a child or young person with special educational needs or disability. It is an inclusive term and covers for instance foster carers, adoptive parents and other family members.

According to the definition of a 'parent carer' given above, do you have caring responsibilities for a disabled child under the age of 18 years?

Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>
No	<input type="checkbox"/>
Prefer not to say	<input type="checkbox"/>

Are you a parent?

We define a parent as:

- a mother, father, adopter, guardian, special guardian, foster parent or private foster carer of the child or a person who has been granted a residence order in respect of a child, or
- a person married to, or the civil partner of the child's mother, father, adopter, guardian, special guardian, foster parent or private foster carer of the child or person who has been granted a residence order in respect of a child.

Are you a parent of a child or children under the age of 17 years?

Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>
No	<input type="checkbox"/>
Prefer not to say	<input type="checkbox"/>

Data Protection Act 1998

The Trust will only process the information you have provided in this form for the purpose of recruitment and selection and, if you are successful in securing this position, for purposes relating to your employment.

Your details will be kept both electronically and in hard copy. We will not disclose this information about you to outside organisations or third parties unless there is a legal requirement to do so, or for the prevention and detection of fraud.

Guidance on your application

Your application form is an important part of our recruitment process – it is how we get to know you and assess your ability to do the job. It enables us to decide whether or not to shortlist you for interview and therefore plays a vital role in the recruitment process.

We do not take into account any previous applications or prior knowledge of you. We also do not accept Curriculum Vitae (CV's) and ask all applicants to complete our application form. This is in line with our Equal Opportunities Policy and ensures that information about candidates is presented in a standard format. The exception to this is candidates with a disability where a CV might be the most convenient method of application.

How we shortlist

When we shortlist, we look at your experience, skills, knowledge, attainment and other information in line with the job description and person specification. You will find copies of these in your job pack.

The job description outlines the main responsibilities and duties of the post, and a person specification outlines the skills, abilities, experience and qualifications that you require to fulfil these duties.

Please ensure you read the job description and person specification before you begin to complete the form so you have in mind the skills and knowledge we are looking for. Applicants who are disabled under the provisions of the Equality Act 2010 will be automatically shortlisted provided they meet the essential qualifications and experience required by the post.

How to complete your application form

General hints

- Read the job description and person specification before you start
- Use black ink so we can clearly photocopy forms for shortlisting and interviewing
- Complete all sections of the form as fully as possible
- Clearly label and number any continuation sheets with your name and the post you are applying for and list the number of attachments on the main application form. This allows us to check we have all the information you want us to have before we shortlist.
- Keep a copy of the application form for your own records.

'Why should we employ you?'

This is the most important part of the form and is your opportunity to show us how you meet the essential and desirable criteria detailed in the person specification and job description i.e. how your skills, knowledge and experience match those we require and how they will enable you to successfully do the job.

- Use the criteria in the person specification as headings and give examples of your experience and skills under each heading.
- You can use skills you have gained from community and voluntary work, leisure interests and your home life, as well as those from your past and present employment.
- Use clearly labelled continuation pages if required.
- Check you have demonstrated how you meet all the essential requirements on the person specification. The shortlisting panel cannot guess or make assumptions about your work experience.

- Remember that we use the job description and person specification to shortlist – if you do not therefore clearly demonstrate how you meet the essential criteria in the person specification – you will be shortlisted to interview.

References (Page 8)

We will contact your references prior to interview unless you have ticked the boxes on the application form indicating not to. References will not be used as part of the interview process, but will be taken into account if you are offered the post. We must receive two satisfactory references about you before we can formally offer you the post.

"Confidential - for the attention of the HR Manager"

All information provided on a "Confidential - for the attention of the "HR Manager " basis is usually withheld from the recruitment and selection panel until shortlisting is complete. The information is made available to the panel for the interview and you should anticipate being asked about it.

Rehabilitation of Offenders

Attwood Academies Trust requires all applicants to disclose criminal convictions. Some posts require information relating to both "spent" and "unspent" convictions whereas other posts require "unspent" information only. Applicants who have been shortlisted for posts involving regular contact with children or vulnerable adults will be required to apply for either a standard or enhanced disclosure from the Criminal Records Bureau. See the enclosed "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 Guidance Notes" (below).

Equal Opportunities in Employment Monitoring Form

Attwood Academies Trust has an Equal Opportunities in Employment Policy. One of its aims is to ensure that unfair discrimination does not occur in recruitment and in order to help the Academy monitor the effectiveness of this Policy (and for no other reason) an Equal Opportunities in Employment Monitoring Form is attached to the Application Form. Completion of this will help us to ensure that we provide the highest standard of service to job applicants.

Disability Guidance

The Equality Act 2010 states that "a person has a disability for the purposes of this Act if he has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities".

What do I do now?

Once your application form is completed and you are happy that you have provided all the information we require to shortlist, please send your application to the address shown on the application form. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope or postcard if you would like receipt of your application form to be acknowledged.

Other important information...

Data Protection Statement

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, the information you provide in your job application form will be treated confidentially at all times and will only be disclosed to personnel involved in the recruitment process. Recruitment decisions will be made by a staff panel and not solely on the basis of automated decision making. If you accept a post with the Trust, your personal information will be held for purposes relating to your Contract of Employment.

Security safeguards apply to both manual and computerised information, and only relevant personnel and managerial staff can access your information. If your application is unsuccessful, your application form and any other information we hold about you will usually be destroyed after six months. Personal information for all applicants may be retained for monitoring and future recruitment purposes.

Evidence of Qualifications

If invited to interview, you will be required to provide evidence to prove that you hold the qualifications, which are relevant to the appointment. If the post requires you to travel on official business you will be required to produce your drivers licence and certificate of insurance to your manager for inspection upon appointment.

Health Statement

Where an appointment is offered, you will be required to complete an online health questionnaire which must be cleared by our Occupational Health provider prior to taking up your post. You may also be required to have a medical examination or give permission for the Occupational Health provider to contact your GP for a report. Staff moving internally will be required to complete a health questionnaire if the new post is significantly different.

Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

It is a criminal offence to employ persons whose immigration status prevents them from working in this country. The Act does not affect citizens of the UK, Ireland, European Economic Area and the Commonwealth, provided they have the right to live and work in the UK.

You will be required, if appointed, to provide evidence prior to appointment contained within passports, foreign identity cards for foreign nationals or other documents on the approved UK Visas and immigration list to satisfy the trust that the Act is being complied with.

Applications to Job Share

If you are applying on a job share basis, please indicate this on the application form, and as far as possible, the working sessions that you would prefer. This enables us to match you with other job share applicants who have indicated complementary working sessions. Please remember that the more you restrict the working sessions available to you, the more difficult it will be for us to find you a partner. Therefore, try and be as flexible as possible.

Interview Expenses

The Trust does not normally pay interview expenses. We do, however, recognise that there may be occasions when candidates require assistance. Please contact the HR department for permission if you require such assistance, before incurring any expense.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974): Guidance Notes

Please read these guidance notes carefully before completing the section on the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 on the Application Form.

Disclosure of Criminal Convictions

Under this Act you are required to disclose details of previous convictions, until a certain length of time passes and the convictions become “spent”.

Under the above Act you do not need to provide details about either minor motoring offences or previous convictions once they become “spent”. This includes the date you sign the application form.

Please note the following when considering whether a conviction is spent:-

- i. “spent” periods are halved if the conviction took place when you were aged 17 or less;
- ii. a sentence of longer than 2½ years in prison will never become “spent”;
- iii. a sentence of preventive detention and a sentence of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure is never “spent”; or
- iv. it is immaterial for the process of calculating a “spent” conviction whether the sentence is suspended or not.

The information you provide will be treated strictly confidentially. Having a conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background to the offence(s) which will be taken into account when considering how suitable you are for the type of work involved, should your application be successful.

Failure to disclose any “unspent” convictions may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn. If already appointed, you could be dismissed without notice.

Please see the list below which details the rehabilitation periods for criminal convictions.

Criminal Convictions and Time Periods before Becoming “Spent”

Sentence	Become spent after
For a sentence of imprisonment or youth custody exceeding six months but not exceeding two and a half years.	10 years
For a sentence of imprisonment or youth custody not exceeding six months.	7 years
For a sentence of Borstal training.	7 years
For a fine or other sentence under this Act, not otherwise covered in this table.	5 years
For an absolute discharge.	6 months

For a probation order, conditional discharge or bindover, fit person orders, supervision order or care order under the Children and Young Persons' Acts (and equivalent in Scotland).	1 year or until the order expires (whichever is the longer)
For cashiering, discharge with Ignominy or dismissal with disgrace from Her Majesty's Service.	10 years
For dismissal from Her Majesty's Service.	7 years
Any sentence of detention in respect of a conviction in service disciplinary proceedings.	5 years
For detention by direction of Home Secretary:
• for a period exceeding six months but not exceeding two and a half years.	5 years
• for a period not exceeding six months.	3 years
• for a detention centre order.	3 years
• for a remand home order, an approved school order or attendance centre order.	The period of the order plus a further year after the order expires
• for a hospital order under the Mental Health Acts.	The period of the order plus a further 2 years after the order expires. (With a minimum of 5 years from the date of conviction.)

Exemptions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

There are specific job categories and classes of employment which are exempt under the provisions of the Act. This means that convictions never become "spent" for work in these categories. Therefore, if you are applying for a position which falls within one of the work categories listed below you will need to declare any convictions you have had regardless of whether or not the time limit has elapsed. The areas of employment which carry exempt status are as follows:-

- Work involving matters of National Security.
- Judicial appointments.
- Employment in the office of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- Employment in the office of Procurator Fiscal or District Court Prosecutor or in the Crown Office.
- Justices' Clerks and Justices' Clerks' Assistants.
